6. The opponents of Sina, known as the Enescu-Mavrichi-George group, is a small intellectual group whose greatest weakness in the past has been its total lack of organization. Generally speaking, however, this group is said to advocate a return to the original concept of the Iron Guard movement and mainly a return to its former christian spirit.

7. Nevertheless, even within the Enescu-Mavrichi-George group, there is a considerable divergence of opinion. The group is said to be divided into two main factions. One faction, headed by Enescu, is said to be in favor of a return to the original concept of the Iron Guard movement and mainly a return to its former christian spirit. The other faction, headed by Mavrichi, is said to be in favor of a return to the original concept of the Iron Guard movement and mainly a return to its former christian spirit. 21. Mr. Di-trescu, (Rumanian Minister in Spain) however, seems to be trying to build up his own personal situation. He no longer needs the SINA group so exclusively as before, and it appears that he is very much impressed with the connections, military and religious, of the Nicolas-Gheorghe-Mavrichi-Enescu group...
